

A. INTRODUCTION

The Contra Costa County Public Works Department Landscape Standards are intended to provide direction in the design, construction, and maintenance of landscape improvements within the County. The standards encompass a broad spectrum of information, allowing the inevitability that some issues may not have been addressed, or recent advances in landscape technologies. Suggestions or comments regarding the standards should be made to the Public Works Department.