WHO

- One Census form should be completed for all residents in each household

WHAT

- The United States constitution requires all residents to complete the Census form every 10 years
- Under the Law, the U.S. Census Bureau cannot share an individual's Census data with the public, state or local governments, immigration enforcement, or other
- The questionnaire takes about 15 minutes, with large household taking longer, and asks ten questions about: address, age, race, and relationship to the other residents in the household

WHEN

- Census 2020 begins online in mid-March 2020
- Starting in May 2020, Census workers will begin going door-to-door to households who have not completed the Census to ask them to respond

HOW

All households will receive a postcard in the mail with instructions about how to take the Census through the following options:
