You do not need to log in to check progress

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the ePermits Center website. On the left is the Contra Costa County Seal, which features a landscape with mountains, a river, and a bridge, surrounded by the text "THE SEAL OF CONTRA COSTA COUNTY CALIFORNIA". To the right of the seal, the text "Contra Costa County" and "Department of Conservation and Development" is displayed. A "Return to Home" button is located in the bottom right corner of the navigation bar. Below the navigation bar, there are links for "Home", "Search", and "Schedule". On the right side, there are links for "Announcements" and "Login".

Processing Status

Displays what application processing tasks have been completed.

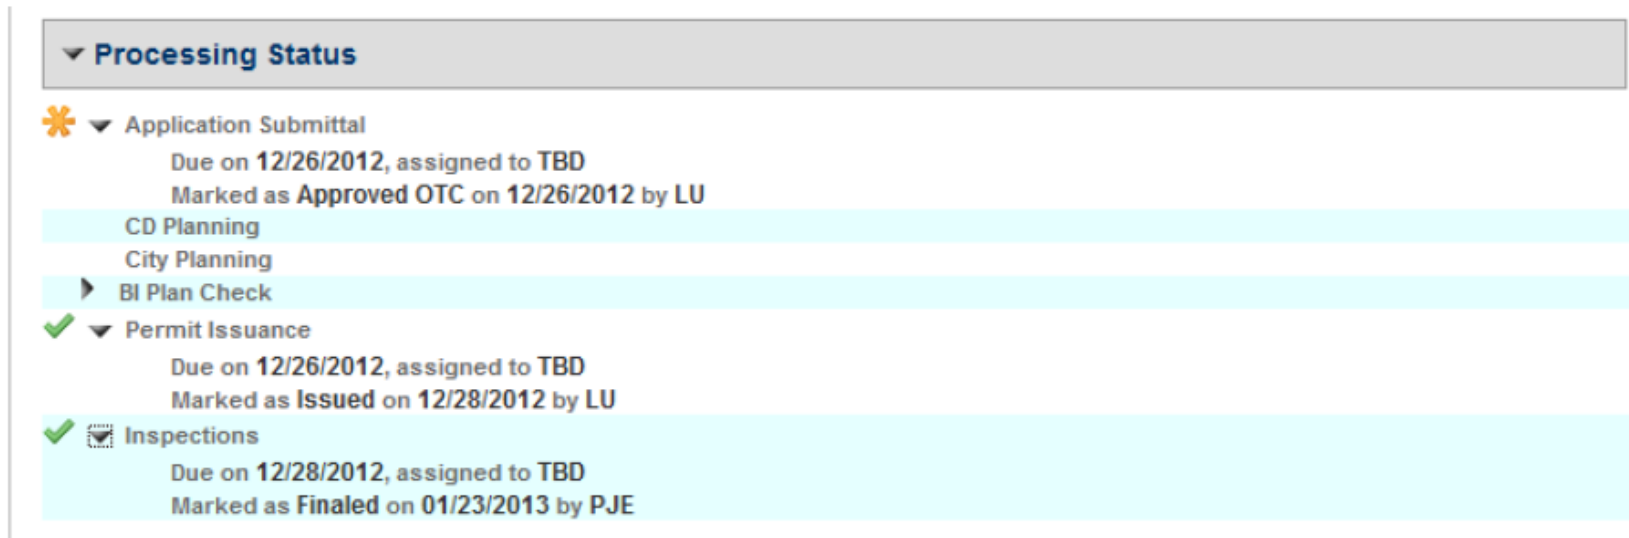

Click on the black arrows  to expand and see details of when and who approved the task.

The green checkmarks  indicate the task has been completed.

Click on the +  sign within the task to expand the task comment.

The hourglass  indicates the task is active and not completed.

No symbols next to a task name indicate the task is not active yet or may not be necessary for the project.

The screenshot shows a software interface with a 'Processing Status' section. The section is titled 'Processing Status' and has a dropdown arrow. Below the title, there are four task entries, each with a status icon and a dropdown arrow:
